

The magickal correspondences

Tiphareth (Tagaririm): yellow ball

The coloured spheres on the tree of life occur here in random order on purpose. You will be challenged to locate the coloured sphere on the tree of life.

In this way, you will retain the presented information more effectively.

This is the tree of life.

The correspondences of Tiphareth/ Tagaririm for magick with the Kings of Goetia are such:

Ruling planet: Sun

Day: Sunday

Astrological hour: Sun

Paper seal colour: yellow

Metal seal: gold

Candle colour: yellow (gold)

Number: 6 (6 spell items for example)

Plant: Sunflower (use seeds)

Gem: Topaz

All this means that if you want to summon a King of Goetia, you can use a yellow candle, a yellow seal of the demon and 6 coins (if you are doing a money spell with Purson for example).

If you are doing a spell to fuel a new business, you can use sunflower seeds in your spell.

You can also use tumbled topaz gem and golden items in your spell with Purson.

Do the spell with Purson during a Sunday and during the astrological hour of Sun.

Of course, if you desire to increase your income, the moon should be waxing or full.

Paper seal colour: green

Metal seal: copper

All this means that if you want to summon a Duke, you must follow the correspondences of Harab Serapel.

Use a copper seal of the Duke in question or you can draw the seal of the Duke on green paper.

Because both Harab Serapel and Netzach are ruled by the planet Venus, you can use the following scents, plants and herbs: rose, sandalwood and cinnamon.

Do the spell with the Duke during a Friday and also during the astrological hour of Venus.

If you are doing a banishing spell with Focalor (he is a Duke), do the spell during the full moon or when the moon is waning.

You can summon Focalor during a Friday and during the astrological hour of Venus.

You can also do the spell during the astrological hour of Saturn or Mars.

Chesed (Gamchicoth): blue ball

The correspondences of Chesed/Gamchicoth for magick with the Princes and Prelates of Goetia are such:

Plant: olive (use olive oil)

Scent: cedar (I use cinnamon)

If you are doing a spell with Ipos (he is a Prince), you can use a blue seal and 4 white candles, because the number of Chesed is 4.

You can paint your spell candles with olive oil. Do the spells with Ipos to become brave during the waxing moon and also during the full moon.

To banish fears, do your spells when the moon is full, waning or almost dark.

Do spells with Ipos during Thursdays and during the astrological hour of Jupiter.

Yesod (Gamaliel): purple ball

The correspondences of Yesod/Gamaliel for magick with the Marquises of Goetia are such:

Astrological hour: Saturn

Altar cloth colour: grey and/or black

Candles: grey or black

Number in magick: 3 (3 candles for example)

Metal: lead

Herb/plant: cypress

Gem: pearl or sapphire

If you want to summon Furcas (he is the only Knight of Goetia), use a grey altar cloth and 3 grey or 3 black candles.

I use pearls in my spells with the spirits of Binah, but its actually a matter of taste.

Because Binah is all about death and restriction, I use graveyard dirt too.

Summon Furcas during a Saturday and during the astrological hour of Saturn.
